DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 1-4 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1, 2, 4, 14 and 15 of U.S. Patent No. 6,677,557.

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the US Patent includes all the elements recited in this instant application including the ceramic heater with a heating element, the distance between the inner wall of the through hole to the heating element being 20 mm or less. The US Patent also shows that the thickness of the ceramic substrate is 50 mm or less which is more than 1.5 mm. The US Patent claims including all the recited elements "anticipate" the pending application. In essence, once the applicant has received a patent for a more specific embodiment, the applicant is not entitled to a patent that is broader.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3742

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kano et al (US 6,242,719).

Kano shows a ceramic substrate with a heating element on the surface of the ceramic substrate, a through hole made in the ceramic substrate where the heating element is formed in line with the inner wall of the hole as can be seen in Figure 1(a) and 1 (b), and Kano also shows that the ceramic substrate has the thickness of over 1.5 mm.

5. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nobori et al (US 5,616,024).

Nobori shows a ceramic substrate with a heating element inside thereof, the through holes, and the thickness of the substrate more than 1.5 mm. Nobori further shows that the distance between the centers of the adjacent loops of the heating element is 15 mm. Thus, the through holes which are provided between the adjacent loops would have formed in the range of

Art Unit: 3742

20 mm or less from the inner wall of the through hole to the heating element (see Figures 19 and 31; and column 28, lines 54-65).
